TRIBUTE TO DEAN MARTIN

Sean does this with absolute ease, with his beautiful voice, with a scotch in one hand and a cigarette in the other as Dean Martin would do on stage! He takes you down memory lane and re-lives all those beautiful Dean Martin songs such as 'That's Amore', 'Everybody Loves Somebody', 'Volare', 'Sway' and many more.

TRIBUTE TO TOM JONES

Sean Portrays Tom Jones in the late 1960's early 70's. Sean really gets the ladies involved when he performs as Tom Jones, he does all the signature moves and expressions. This tribute is surely a fun and sexy segment that the crowd simply love and enjoy! Singing all the Tom Jones classics like Delilah, Green Grass Of Home, She's a Lady and It's Not Unusual. Sean portrays Tom Jones' strong voice and strong stage presence.

TRIBUTE TO JOHN LENNON

Sean has a very striking and uncanny resemblance to John Lennon, portraying Lennon in the late 1960's early 70's era. Mixing it up singing some Beatles classics and of course the huge Lennon hits such as Imagine, Give Peace A Chance, Stand By Me and many more. He transforms into the 'hippie' era of Lennon with his Liverpool accent and attitude. This tribute will have you spellbound. You could just 'Imagine' John Lennon being in the same room.

A DANCE TRIBUTE TO MICHAEL JACKSON

A Fast paced, dynamic, and sharp dance performance. It is a great illusion and Sean does a great 'Dance Tribute' to the King Of Pop Michael Jackson! This really showcases Sean's versatility as he puts on a stunning visual dance tribute to the greatest hits, including Thriller, Billie Jean, Beat It, and many more.

TRIBUTE TO ELVIS PRESLEY

Portrays Elvis Presley at the peak of his career focusing on the early concert years of Presley, when he returned to Las Vegas in 1969/1970 and reclaimed his status as the greatest entertainer of all time. Sean has the voice, the raw and sharp authentic moves and the physical presence in this particular era when Elvis was full of energy and was just electrifying to watch on stage. His electrifying tribute to Elvis Presley is second to none. Sean's devotion and art focuses on keeping Elvis's legacy alive.
