THE KINGS is a authentic tribute show to the biggest entertainers of our time 'The King Of Pop Michael Jackson' and 'The King Of Rock 'N' Roll Elvis Presley'. Starring Sean Luke Spiteri portraying both of these legends live on stage. A trained singer and actor that has an incredible versatile talent to capture the true essence and persona paying tribute to 'The King Of Pop' and 'The King Of Rock 'N' Roll very authentically. This show is a tribute in remembrance to these great musical pioneers.

AN EXCITING, PASSIONATE, FUN ENTERTAINING SHOW

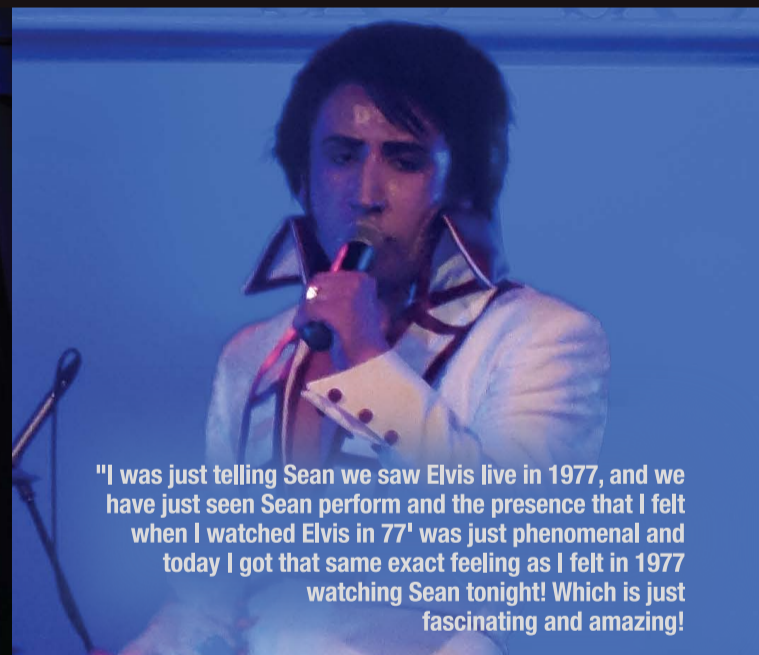

"Sean is just naturally a born entertainer, boy can he dance like Michael Jackson"

'DANCE TRIBUTE' TO MICHAEL JACKSON.

A Fast paced, dynamic, and sharp dance performance. It is a great illusion and Sean does a great 'Dance Tribute' to the King Of Pop Michael Jackson! This really showcasing Sean's versatility as a performer as he puts on a stunning visual 'dance tribute' to the greatest hits of MJ, including Thriller, Billie Jean, Beat It, and many more. (Please note Sean does not sing as Michael Jackson it is strictly a dance tribute to the King of Pop)

"I was just telling Sean we saw Elvis live in 1977, and we have just seen Sean perform and the presence that I felt when I watched Elvis in 77' was just phenomenal and today I got that same exact feeling as I felt in 1977 watching Sean tonight! Which is just fascinating and amazing!"

TRIBUTE TO ELVIS PRESLEY.

Sean has the voice, the raw and sharp authentic moves and the physical presence of Elvis Presley, in the particular era of the early 1970's when Elvis was full of energy and was just electrifying to watch on stage.

A Two Time Award Winning Elvis Tribute Artist Sean Luke Spiteri ranked Australia's No.1 in 2012 and in 2014 represented Australia in Memphis Tennessee both years at the UETA contest with the world's best ETAs, being ranked Top 29 worldwide in both those years. His electrifying tribute to Elvis Presley is second to none. Sean's devotion and art focuses on keeping Elvis's legacy alive.
